

JCYAT Code of Conduct

These are the expectations for participants and parent/guardian volunteers

- Be on time and come to rehearsal prepared
- Remain on the premises at all times. Stay in the area of the theater designated by your director. Do not run through the theater. Never climb into storage areas or between flats or large props.
- Do not play with tools, props, stage sets, lights, makeup or costumes. During rehearsal/performances you should never touch the props or costumes of another performer. Treat your own props and costumes with care. Vandalism of theater property will not be tolerated.
- When you are not on the stage be quiet and respectful of the performers on stage.
- Treat the other members of your theater family as you would like to be treated. We will not tolerate any threatening, bullying, teasing or otherwise negative behavior.
- Please be respectful of your director, production staff, parent volunteers and JCCT/JCYAT board members. Follow their directions. A member of the JCCT or JCYAT board will attend each rehearsal, performance or related event to serve as a liaison. Concerns, questions or comments may be discussed with either the director or the liaison.
- Should a violation of conduct occur it should be reported to the board liaison as soon as possible. The board will contact the participant in question and his/her parent/guardian. The behavior will be discussed and a resolution proposed. If the participant and parent agree with the resolution and act duly upon it the matter will be considered resolved. However should the participant and the parent disagree with the proposed resolution or not follow through with the plan for resolution then their involvement with JCCT/JCYAT will be discontinued.
- JCCT/JCYAT reserves the right to discontinue the participation of any performer or volunteer for any reason at their discretion.
- JCYAT staff and photographers for local media may take pictures of you or your child at any rehearsal or event. Those photos may be used for publicity at our discretion. Media websites include but are not limited to Facebook, YouTube, and JCCT website.

- JCCT/JCYAT is a non-profit organization here for the benefit of the community and its children. All the participants, adults and minors understand that although every care will be taken to avoid and prevent injury and accidents, if they should occur JCCT/JCYAT is not liable.
- Parent/guardian volunteers are required to attend a volunteer organization meeting at the beginning of a production. Each performer must have at least one parent sign up to work on some type of committee to help with the production of the performance. Each committee will be assigned a team leader to organize the volunteers.
- A parent/guardian must chaperone the green room or work in the concession stand for at least one performance. Volunteers may also be asked to chaperone the green room during rehearsals as necessary.
