

SCENE 6 SIDES

FLAP enters. He is unshaven and his clothes are wrinkled. EMMA crosses to him to keep him from going upstairs. FLAP has been caught. He is scared, and she knows it. She looks him up and down.

FLAP

What?

EMMA

What?! Where have you been all night?

FLAP

I'm sorry, Ems. I fell asleep on that big sofa in the library, again. I don't know what's wrong with me.

(He tries to move past her and she steps in front of him and points with her finger)

EMMA

I'm on to you.

FLAP

What's that supposed to mean?

EMMA

It means I'm on to you.

FLAP

I hate seeing you this unhappy. I know our money situation isn't...

EMMA

Don't change the subject.

FLAP

What's the subject?

EMMA

That I'm on to you. You're seeing someone.

FLAP

You know, Emma. You always get paranoid during your first months of pregnancy. It happens all the time. Remember when...

EMMA

If you are doing something, and you're trying to make me feel like I'm crazy, because I am bearing your child, then you may have just sunk to a point so low, that you may never recover. You may have just panicked, Flap, and in trying to save yourself, you have thrown away your principles and your character. The only possible way you can redeem yourself, and be the man God intended you to be, is to take the responsibility and admit what you were doing last night. If you don't do that...right now, you are a lost man. You are a shell. You are a bag of shit.

(There is a long pause)

FLAP

Emma, I fell asleep in the library. End of story.
